

COMING TO THE BAR

AN INFORMATION & NETWORKING EVENING
HOSTED BY VICTORIAN WOMEN LAWYERS AND WOMEN BARRISTERS ASSOCIATION

Are you thinking of becoming a barrister? Would you like to hear more about life at the bar before you make the leap? Do you have questions about the issues faced by women barristers?

VWL and WBA invite you to a presentation from a panel of informative and entertaining speakers who will give you an inside view of life in chambers including the bar readers' course, the bar exam, the clerking system and more. The presentation will be followed by an opportunity to meet the presenters and other women barristers over drinks and canapés.

PANELLISTS:

- GEORGINA COSTELLO, BARRISTER
- JENNIFER TREWHELLA, BARRISTER
- TAMMY YOUNG, BARRISTERS' CLERK & FORMER BARRISTER

DATE

Wednesday 15 October 2014

TIME

5:30pm panel presentation
followed by drinks and canapés from 6.30pm

LOCATION

Neil McPhee Room &
The Essoign
Owen Dixon Chambers
205 William Street, Melbourne

COST

Free for VWL members
$40 non-members

REGISTRATION

www.vwl.asn.au/events
Please register by 7 October