

VICTORIAN
WOMEN LAWYERS

INSPIRING CHANGE

CELEBRATE INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY WITH VWL'S WOMEN IN GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE
& THE RUSSELL KENNEDY WOMEN'S NETWORK

SPECIAL GUEST AND KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
MOIRA RAYNER

Victorian Women Lawyers is pleased to again host an International Women's Day cocktail and networking evening with the Russell Kennedy Women's Network.

Our guest speaker, Moira Rayner, will address the 2014 International Women's Day theme 'Inspiring change'.

Moira is a prominent Victorian lawyer, and has broad experience both inside and outside of government organisations. She is also a well-known writer and advocate regarding human rights, equality and gender issues. She has co-authored several books on governance, human rights, government policy and women and power. Her positions have included being the last Victorian Commissioner for Equal Opportunity and the first Director of the Office of Children's Rights Commissioner for London. Moira currently works in private practice.

DATE

13 March 2014

TIME

5:30pm for drinks, canapés and networking opportunities, presentation from 6pm

LOCATION

Russell Kennedy
Level 12, 469 La Trobe Street, Melbourne

COST

This is a free event

REGISTRATION

www.vwl.asn.au/events

