THE JAMMED

MOVIE SCREENING AND PANEL DISCUSSION ABOUT HUMAN TRAFFICKING FOR SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

Please join us for a special screening of The Jammed, a film set in Melbourne and inspired by real events.

The film depicts the agonising journey of three trafficked women: a mother's desperate search to find her daughter and a stranger who becomes enmeshed in a quest to liberate the tortured women.

Originally released in 2007, the film was hailed by David Stratton as the best Australian film of the year.

The screening will be followed by a panel discussion considering the prevalence of human trafficking for sexual exploitation in Australia, and whether the situation has improved since the film's first release.
